

The Big Read “A Tale of Our City”

Jersey City's First Annual Book Festival
Celebrating Our Authors & Promoting
Reading in Our Community
Funded, in part, by The Big Read.

Panel Discussion

Readers of Fahrenheit 451...the temperature at which books burn by Ray Bradbury.

Readers will receive a copy of the book, in exchange for agreeing to participate.

The Jersey City Authors' Tent

Celebrating Authors from Jersey City & Authors that have written about Jersey City.

The Library Tent

JCFPL Patrons will receive a FREE copy Fahrenheit 451, if they show their library card or apply for a Library Card at the Event.

The Hispanic Heritage Foundation of Hudson County Tent

This tent will highlight Hispanic Authors and, in Cooperation with Jersey City's Biblioteca Criolla, New Jersey's only Hispanic Library, will have Spanish Language Books available for attendees.

The Sensory Tent

Combines Interactive Literacy & Music Activities for Special Needs Children.

The Storytime Tent

Local Community Leaders will read excerpts from Children's Books.

The Book-Swap Tent

Residents will be encouraged to Come & 'Swap' Actual Books, Magazines, etc.

The Cultural Affairs Tent

Interactive Book Illustrations w/Cultural Affairs & Local Artists.

Local Booksellers

Local Bookstores will rent space at the Festival to Sell Books to Attendees.

CONTACT: Sonia Araujo, (201) 547-4749
saraujo@jclibrary.org

(over, please)

